2018	 SNOW WHITE This special nickel commemorates the release of Snow White &amp; the Seven Dwarfs in 1937. The original coin was issued as part of the "Stamps on Coins" series of pennies in 1987 to coincide with a U.S. Postal Service series of stamps honoring each decade of the 20th century. The coin was designed by Jess Kirby and pressed by Ray Dillard. The originals were produced mainly on pennies, but a limited number of various U.S. and foreign coins were also rolled. In 2018, I approached Ray about making 100 nickels and 40 Japanese yen coins from the original die. Parkpennies.com has designated the original as #DW0006. Jim McNally • www.zzzcoins.com Ebay seller JNMCNALLY	Snow White Movie Premieres. Rolled on uncirculated nickels. Back: plain. Rolled by Ray Dillard. This coin is one of the Parkpennies #DW0006 series of pressings. 100 copies made. About 30 have unnumbered souvenir cards.

2021		Monorail penny. Pressed by Don Cade with an exclusive zzzcoins.com backstamp. 300 pennies were made, plus 30 quarters, dimes, nickels and cents for sale as denomination sets. The pennies were primarily given away to customers and those attending TEC events. These coins have been assigned catalog number DT0019 by Parkpennies.com since they involve a Disney theme, and DC0047 in Don Cade's catalog. About 50 coins distributed at coins shows and collectors meets included an informational souvenir card.
2021	 Error &amp; canceled version on golden dollars, DC0061 &amp; DC0062	Codd Camp penny. Pressed by Don Cade for distribution at a family event. 160 copper copies were made, plus a denomination set for my own collection. Back: plain. Additionally, some variations were made. The original run revealed a spelling error. The error coins were given catalog number DC0061 by Don Cade. 10 copies of the error penny were made at my request for family members, plus one denomination set for my collection. The error die was canceled by Don with an asterisk, and a denomination set rolled for my collection. The canceled version is catalog number DC0062. The corrected version is catalog number DC0063. This series of coins was featured in an article in the TEC News in September 2021.

	Correct version – DC0063
2021		The world's smallest elongated (not) – a failed attempt to roll the smallest elongated. Don Cade rolled his own business card design (DT0008) onto Spanish aluminum paseta coins, which are smaller than a dime. We did not expect the design to fit – this was only a prototype to test the results of rolling such a small source coin. Shown with a standard rolled penny. About 8 coins were made. This experiment was featured in an article in the TEC News in January 2022.

2021		Disney's Viewliner. Don Cade rolled 300 copper pennies and 25 nickels, dimes and quarters. Each has the exclusive zzzcoins.com backstamp. This coin is Parkpennies.com catalog number DT0024. Denomination sets were sold, and single pennies were primarily intended as give-aways to customers for 2022.
2022		2022 FUN Show (Orlando). Cindy Calhoun rolled 12 copies of the show coin on Buffalo nickels and 7 copies on bi-metal Mexican pesos

2020		Woody & Buzz Friends (Presscoins #RES0251) rolled on gold-plated U.S. quarters.  About 10 copies.

Note: there are also numerous Disney coins I have pressed on alternative materials, such as steel cents for the year sets and foreign coins used for the corresponding designs at Epcot's World Showcase. Those sets are regularly offered for sale on the zzzcoins.com website. The coins listed in this chart were primarily prepared as handouts, not as sale items.
